The application may be made either by that person or by an Authorized Representative who meets the above conditions. It is provided that the domain name ending in ".cy", for which such application for registration to the Register Administrator and licensing is being made, may be used only by the person for whom the request is made.

2. Any interested parties are advised to submit the application form via the electronic system <http://www.nic.cy/domainrequest.htm>, for a preliminary inspection by the Administrator, before proceeding to the submission of the necessary documents. The application will have a priority number based on the date of application. The examination of applications shall be in accordance with the principle of time priority (first come first served).
3. Upon receipt of the application and within 6 working days, the Administrator informs the Applicant whether the requested name is available and if it meets the requirements for the registration and the licensing of the Domain Name or if they need any supporting certificates.
  1. Upon receipt of a positive reply by the Administrator, the Applicant is requested to notify the Administrator, within 6 working days (by hand or by fax or email, to the contact address of the Administrator) the signed application form with all the required certificates and pay the relevant Fee for the purpose being granted the License to Use the Domain Name.
  2. In accordance with the above, if the request for the Domain Name ending in “.cy” complies with the conditions for the registration, then the registration to the Register follows and the issuing of the License Certificate to Use of the Domain Name, provided that this is requested in writing, from the Administrator for the period of the License to Use.
  3. The License Certificate Use has to be notified, if this is requested in writing and the relevant fee is paid, and it is notified to the Registrant only upon the request of that person or his Authorized Representative.
  4. The name is activated immediately after the registration of the Registrant in the Register of Domain Names ending in “.cy”, and the Registrant is informed accordingly. The registration of the Domain Name indicates its activation.
  5. In case an Applicant fails to send the application form along with the necessary supporting documents within the aforesaid deadline (within 6 working days of the receipt of a positive reply by the Administrator), the application is automatically rejected and the Applicant, in the case he or she is still interested, shall reapply.
  6. In case an error in the registration of the Domain Name occurs, there is a time frame of 15 days to correct it. The respective name will be blocked during the entire process of the correction stage, and will not be used.
4. Upon notification of the Administrator’s decision to submit any supporting documents, the Applicant or Authorized Representative, within 6 working days, has to submit the supporting required documents or inform the Administrator if an application to the competent authority of the Republic of Cyprus has been made in order to obtain the certificate.
  1. In the case where an application has been made to a competent authority of the Republic of Cyprus for acquiring a certification:
    - The time frame of six months for submission of the certificate is provided.

- If the certificate is not provided within the above time frame the License to Use is canceled, without any further commitment.
  - For reissuing the License to Use a special letter/invoice will be sent, which states that, given that the certificate is being provided within the set time frame, the License to Use will be reissued.
2. If no application has been submitted to the competent authority of the Republic of Cyprus for acquiring the certificate, the request is rejected.
  3. If an error in the registration of the Domain Name occurs, there will be a time frame of 15 days to correct it. During this period, the name will be blocked and will not be used.
5. In cases where the legal person is entitled to use a particular name and is registered as a legal entity in another country-Member State of the European Union then that person, if they operate in Cyprus, must submit a certificate of registration by the competent authority of the Republic of Cyprus. The presentation of the authorization document by the Authorized Representative is deemed necessary for matters related with the obtainment of the License to Use the Domain Name or for other general naming issues, where and when is deemed necessary by the Administrator.
  6. In the case where a legal person is registered as a legal entity in another country-Member State of the European Union and is not active in Cyprus, then the legal person who has applied to acquire the online name must submit the relevant certificate of that person's country of origin to the Administrator. The relevant registration certificate should be properly certified, stamped and signed by the competent authority of the place of origin. The presentation of the relevant authorization of the person who will be represented for the matters of obtaining the License to Use a Domain Name or general naming issues is also required.
  7. The relevant registration certificate should be properly certified, stamped and signed by the competent authority of the place of origin.

10. When a natural person submits an application, this person is obliged to present his or her identity or any other official document of the Republic of Cyprus or of an EU Member State that proves that person's identity. Any Authorized Representatives or third parties who act on behalf of that person and/or on behalf of the interested natural persons and/or following their instructions, have to provide the appropriate authorization. The natural person who applies or the Authorized Representative must be over eighteen years of age. Also, that person must provide the Administrator with all relevant documents by the competent authorities, which prove that the natural person has the right to use the name for which the application for acquiring the Domain Name has been made, in order to for the registration to be successfully implemented.
11. In case of a legal person, the Administrator may request the submission of the in cooperation certificate company, trade union, political party, charitable institution, group and association or any other entity, issued by the competent authorities of the Republic of Cyprus, and also the authorization certificate of the Authorized Representative of the legal person. If the requested certificates are not submitted the request is rejected.
12. The Administrator reserves the right to revise the relevant fees at any time, in accordance with the provisions of the Order and publish these on the website.
13. Two (2) months before the expiration of the License period of the Domain Name Use, the Administrator informs the Registrant by sending an invoice for the reissuing of the license agreement, if desired, and the conditions for the re-issuance of the License are fulfilled. The first option to reissue the License Domain Name is given to the Registrant.
14. In the case of reissuing the License Domain Name, it is deemed necessary to enter a new agreement between the Administrator and the Applicant, which will cover the period of the new License to Use and will be governed by the relevant rules in force. The non-payment of the Fee to Reissue within one (1) month of the receipt of the invoice will be considered as a negative reply and the License of the Domain Name will be immediately canceled and removed from the Register.

10. License Right to Use Domain Name

1. The Right to Use the Domain Name is held by the Registrant or the Authorized Representative, provided that he or she operates under the terms of the authorization and where such representation continues to exist.
2. The respective persons should maintain a permanent address within the borders of the Republic of Cyprus.
3. The License to Use the Domain Name is issued solely to the Registrant and not to other Associations or individuals that offer support to name servers, or to any other person.
4. The Authorized Representative of the Registrant does not acquire the right to use the specific domain name ending in ".cy", unless this coincides with the property of the Registrant.

5. The Registrant who acquires the right to use the specific Domain Name does not acquire, according to this, any rights to the trademarks of the business, products, or services which are offered, and which were solely and exclusively acquired according to the applicable provisions that concern their acquisition. Any rights on trademarks of undertakings (natural or legal persons), products or services or intellectual property rights which include intellectual property are not restricted in any way by the provisions of this Order and the relevant Annexes.

11. The Number of the Registered Domain Names

There are no restrictions on the number of Domain Names ending in “cy” which may be granted to the Registrant.

12. Regulations for Licensing the Use of the Domain Name

License of the Domain Name will be granted only under the following terms and conditions:

1. It is not possible to register a Domain Name which has already been assigned to another person or which is similar to another already registered Domain Name to a degree as to cause confusion to the public. If more than one application on the same domain name has been submitted, a priority status will be given, and in case of granting to the first application, the rest are immediately rejected.
2. A Domain Name cannot be granted if it contains words with obscene or vulgar content, or it is contrary to public policy, national security and/or principles of morality, or the application was made in bad faith or the content constitutes an offense subject to the Laws of the Republic of Cyprus.
3. A Domain Name cannot be granted if that has a general content and identifies a branch, department, group, business, professional or business sector or word with commercial connotations. Domain names which are characterized by the initial addition of the Latin letter “e”, followed by a name of general importance, then the entire name will be considered of general importance. The authorization of the license to use such name would unfairly grant the exclusive right to use the specific Domain Name in favor of a person over another. Such license may only be issued in exceptional circumstances, in which the authority or the entity representing the sector or particular group shall make a plan/certificate for the allotment of the name, which retains all rights to the names of all affected parties and which plan/certificate is notified to the Administrator.
4. It is not possible to grant a Domain Name that is associated with political figures or political and/or historical activities for which a special permission from the relevant recognized and registered competent authority is required, unless such authorization is notified to the Administrator.
5. It is not possible to grant a Domain Name if this is of extreme political and/or Nazi and/or racist content.
6. It is not possible to grant a Domain Name if this is contrary to the laws of the Republic of Cyprus, including international treaties that relate to intellectual property rights (such as trademarks, well-known international brands).

7. The Grant of the License to Use Domain Names ending in “.cy” can only be possible with the use of characters of the Latin alphabet.
8. It is not possible to grant a Domain Name that is shorter than three characters (including alphanumeric characters of the Latin alphabet a-z, 0-9 and the character (-)). The character (-) can not appear at the beginning or at the end of the name.
9. It is not possible to grant a Domain Name when this constitutes a Geographical Name (place name), which identifies geographic areas, as shown on official maps that are issued by the Department of Lands and Surveys of the Republic of Cyprus. Geographic Names may only be granted to the relevant local Authorities. Any applications which include trademarks, company names, etc., and which include a real geographical name, must include the "entity name" next to the Geographical Name.
10. It is not possible to grant a Domain Name in case the Applicant is a natural person and has not reached the age of 18 years at the time of the application.
11. A third level Domain Name must not be identical to any existing Top Level Domain Name in the global Internet at the time of application or the second area below “.cy”.
12. A second level Domain Name, as amended from time to time, such as ac.cy, net.cy, org.cy, ltd.cy, biz.cy, pro.cy, name.cy, ekloges.cy, tm.cy, press.cy and parliament.cy are names of restricted nature and the Applicant is required to present evidence of the right to register to this second level category. In this event, due to their nature, the responsibility to grant the License to Use this name to the Applicant lies to the Administrator, provided that the Applicant has presented the necessary evidences for the attainment of such License to Use these.
13. The Domain Name should not be identified with term that constitutes an official reference to the Republic of Cyprus and other States and/or international organizations and/or other international entities which are included in Article 6 of the Paris Convention on Industrial Property, and with a reference point of great symbolic importance, particularly religious symbols and words.
14. In the event that the Administrator believes or becomes aware that the Domain Name will be used for the purpose of cybersquatting, the Administrator may reject the application request for License to Use.

13. License to Use Domain Names

1. With the registration of the Domain Name to the Register and the granting of the License to Use, the Registrant obtains the right to Use the Domain Name for the period that the License to Use applies, after the payment of the relevant fee to the Administrator. The Domain Name License is valid only during the period that the License to Use applies.

2. The License to Use a Domain Name does not involve the acquisition of property rights or any other rights including copyright, intellectual or commercial rights on the Domain Name. All rights of Domain Name remain to the Commissioner.
3. The property and/or property rights of the Domain Name belong to the Commissioner according to the provisions of the Order and not to the Registrant who has simply been granted the License to Use the Domain Name for the period of the License to Use.

14. Duration of the Entitlement

1. The License to Use the Domain Name ending in “.cy” applies either for one (1) or two (2) years, depending on the fees that were paid either for registration or for the renewal of the License to Use the Name. The license agreement may not exceed the period of two (2) years.
2. There is the possibility of re-issuing the License for a period of one (1) or two (2) years, according to each case. The Administrator shall send an invoice two (2) months before the expiry of the License to Use the Domain Name and shall notify the Registrant to pay the Reissue Fee for the License to Use within one (1) month of receipt of the invoice, if desired, after drawn to that person’s attention any changes with regard to the granting of the License to Use. If the Registrant pays the Reissue Fee, the License to Use is reissued and the use of the Domain Name is automatically renewed. If the Registrant does not respond, the License to use the Domain Name will be automatically canceled and removed from the Register.

15. Transfer of a License to Use a Domain Name ending in “.cy”.

The License to Use a Domain Name cannot be transferred to another person except in the following cases, which must be disclosed and approved by the Administrator:

1. Inheritance right, in the case of natural persons.
2. Partnership or merger of a legal person with another legal person or in case of a takeover of a legal person by another legal person.

16. Conditions for Retaining the Domain Name

1. The reservation of a Domain Name is not possible for any length of time on behalf of any Applicant.
2. A person who has been granted a License to Use a Domain Name ending in “.cy” is the sole responsible person for its activation, provided that all relevant conditions of the Order and of the relevant Annexes are satisfied.
3. A person who has been granted a License to Use is responsible to ensure the cessation of the use of the activated Domain Name ending “.cy” in case there is a reason for rejection, withdrawal or cancellation of use of the respective Domain Name.
4. The Registrant, after the relevant cancellation, refusal or withdrawal of the License to Use the Domain Name neither is entitled to use this nor he holds or any other right relation to this.

17. Termination of the License to Use the Domain Name

1. The Termination of the License to Use the Domain Name can only be done by a written, signed letter from the Registrant or Authorized Representative to the Administrator requesting the termination of the License, providing the reasons for this. Any fees that were paid, will not be reimbursed, provided the existence of a pre-existing registration of the Domain Name to the Register and sending of a relevant Certificate License to Use, where it has been requested. The withdrawal request shall include the deletion of the Domain Name from the Register kept by the Administrator.
2. The deletion of the Domain Name is only permitted if this is requested by the Registrant himself or herself or the Authorized Representative either in writing or by email, post, or by hand, or by fax by submitting a signed statement, clearly and explicitly stating in writing the reason for this.

18. Cancellation of the License to Use a Domain Name

The Cancellation of the License to Use a Domain Name can be executed by the Administrator in the following cases:

1. The non-payment of the Reissue License Fees by the Registrant within the specified time frames.
2. If the Registrant violates any of the terms specified in the Order and in Annex I of the Order or in the case he or she establishes a convention of one of the reasons for the rejection.
3. With a decision taken in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure in accordance with Articles 13 and 14 of the Order.
4. In case the Registrant violates its obligations in light of the above or violates any conditions on the grounds of reasons of refusal or if the Registrant violates his or her obligations towards the Agreement or if the Domain Name receives such management that endangers the functioning of Domain Name system.
5. If the Administrator finds that the information provided by the Registrant is incorrect, inaccurate, unreliable, false or misleading.
6. In the event that there is a Court Order for the Administrator to cancel the License to Use the Domain Name.
7. In the event of liquidation or dissolution of the legal person.
8. In cases of bankruptcy or death of a natural person, subject to the provisions mentioned above for transferring the License Domain Name ending in “.cy”.
9. In case the Registrant fails to inform the Administrator, according to defined terms, of any changes to the details of any Association, which he or she had to communicate directly to the Administrator.
10. In case of receipt of written instructions from the Registrant for the Administrator to act in this manner.

11. In case a decision has been reached which acts as a resolution for a dispute of the Dispute Resolution Procedure, as determined in the Order.
12. As a result of the ruling, by resolution of a dispute by the competent instrument, with regard to the use of the Domain Name or after an agreement between the parties with regard to its use and as long as there is no pre-existing approval of the Agreement by the Administrator, in violation of the terms of the Order and the respective Annexes.
13. If the domain name is used for the purpose of cybersquatting.
14. If such changes are necessary in order to correct an error related to the Domain Name registration.

19. Amendment of the registered Domain Name or the accompanying data

The amendment of the registered Domain Name or the accompanying data can be executed by the Administrator in the following cases:

- If the Administrator finds that the information provided by the Registrant is wrong.
- In case of an error detection wherein the correction of the error is deemed necessary with regard to the registration of the Domain Name.
- In the case of a ruling for granting a decision for solving the dispute by the competent Authority, in relation to the use of the Domain Name or after an agreement between the parties concerning the use of this, given that there is a prior authorization agreement by the Administrator.
- After being notified of the Commissioner's decision under Article 14 of the Order.
- No changes can be made in the name of an existing Domain Name.

20. Domain Name Dispute Resolution Procedure

1. The Administrator is obliged to proceed to dispute resolution procedure in the below cases:
  1. The persons whose applications with regard to the granting of the License to Use a Domain Name has been rejected by the Administrator can request a review of their application by submitting, with their request, all supporting documentation supporting their request. The fee of the review request and the fee of a possible hearing process will be provided in advance in all cases and, regardless of the result, it is non-refundable.
  2. A License to Use a specific Domain Name has been granted by the Administrator to the Registrant and a third party is affected by this decision with a legitimate interest from the exploitation of the Domain Name in any way. The fee of the review request and the fee of a possible hearing process will be provided in advance in all cases and, regardless of the result, it is non-refundable. It is deemed that the aforesaid third party is entitled to appeal to the Administrator, requesting the review of the request and a change of the decision. The request should be accompanied by the supporting documents that show that the royalties of that domain name belong to the respective third party.
2. Request for reviewing the application for obtaining a License to Use the specific Domain Name:

1. The Administrator is obliged, within five (5) working days of the receipt of the application, to reply to the person who applied for the review of the application by e-mail or by post or by hand or by fax, confirming receipt of the request with the accompanying support documents.
  2. If further clarification is required, the person making the request shall be informed by the Administrator in regard to the required clarification within the aforesaid period.
  3. The person making the request shall respond and submit any additional documents within five (5) working days from the date of the notification by the Administrator. If the Administrator deems that the application with the submitted supporting documents is satisfactory, he or she must be notify this decision to the person who requested a review within five (5) working days.
  4. If the Applicant deems that the application for revision, with the relevant supporting documents, is not satisfactory, he or she holds the right, after the submission of the request for revision, the right be given a hearing. To this end, the Applicant will pay a fixed fee, according to the hearing. The Administrator is required to keep minutes during the hearing process and to explain the process that is been carried out at his presence.
  5. The duration of this process shall not exceed twenty (20) working days from the date that the applicant was notified about the grant of his request of review in a hearing.
  6. Within the aforesaid period, the Administrator shall notify the Applicant on the respective decision, after reviewing the application.
3. Third Party Request to change the Administrator's decision for granting a License to Use to the Registrant:
1. The Administrator is obliged to respond to the person making the request for the change of the decision by email, post, by hand or by fax confirming receipt of the request with the accompanying supporting documents. The third party is also informed that, within five working days, that person should:
    - i. Pay the respective fee as set in Annex IV of the Order, for the initiation of the dispute resolution procedure and
    - ii. Send any supporting documents.
  2. Subsequently, the Administrator, within 5 working days of receipt of the supporting documents and the respective Fee by the third party, is required to send the relevant documents to the Registrant.
  3. The Registrant, thereafter, is requested, within 10 working days of receipt of the documents by the Administrator, to respond to the Administrator and the third party, and notify his or her positions.
  4. The third party is thereafter requested, within 5 working days of receipt of the Registrant's position, to respond to the Administrator and the Registrant and notify his or her positions.
  5. The Administrator in case that he or she deems that the relevant documents and information are not satisfactory, he or she is entitled to call the third party and the Registrant in a hearing for clarification purposes and for obtaining any additional documents. The Administrator is required to keep minutes during this process and to explain the process that is being carried out. In such case, the duration of the process will not exceed twenty (20) working days from the date of the notification of the Administrator's intention to call for a hearing, to both parties. The decision of the Administrator is notified to all parties.

6. Otherwise, the Administrator is required, within 10 working days of receipt of the third part of the final positions, to notify his or her decision to the Registrant and the Commissioner.
7. In case the person requesting the review or change of the decision of the Administrator and has been received notice from Administrator in order to attend a hearing, if that person does not appear before the Administrator, then the request is immediately rejected.
8. In case that during the procedure is revealed that the granting of the License of the Domain Name was based on fraudulent, false or misleading statements by the Registrant, the Administrator cancels the license of the Domain Name and declares void the agreement that is included the Article 12 of the Order.
9. In case the third party, at the conclusion of the Administrator, is found to hold the exploitation rights of the name and the License to Use has been wrongly granted to the Registrar, the Administrator is entitled to withdraw the License to Use of the name from the Registrant, and grants this to the third party, if the third party agrees. If the third party does not wish to obtain the permission to use the Domain Name, the Administrator will keep minutes to prohibit its use by another person other than the holder, not only for his or her own purposes but also for informing any interested person in the future, in accordance with the principle of transparency.
10. The Administrator shall give written notice to the Commissioner with regard to the initiation of the dispute resolution procedure.
11. In case it is not possible to settle the dispute in accordance with the above process and within the specified time limit, as defined in Article 13 of the Order, any person involved in the dispute resolution process, in the event of disagreement with the decision of the Administrator, is entitled to appeal to the Commissioner against that decision of the Administrator, in accordance with the process that is included in paragraph 12 of this Order.
12. In case any person, as per paragraph (1) and (2) of article 13 of the Order, appeals to the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall resolve the dispute in accordance with Part VI of the Order, and adequately reach a reasoned decision that settles the issue indefinitely.
13. The relevant Commissioner's decision is binding for all parties, referring to both to the applicant, the Administrator and any related third party. Provided that, in accordance with article 158 of the Law 112 (I) 2004 any act or decision of the Commissioner, will appeal to the Supreme Court of Cyprus, in accordance with article 146 of the Constitution.

21. Registration Information – Personal Data

1. The Applicant, the Registrant and any third party agree and acknowledge that the Administrator will submit the Domain Name registration information in the Register, which is maintained by the Administrator and where the public has access only to the following information:
  - (A) The name of the Domain Name that is registered,
  - (B) The name of Applicant or Registrant or the Authorized Representative who has registered the name (only in the case of a legal person),
  - (C) The expiration date of the License to Use of the Domain Name.
2. Any personal data which are submitted by the Applicant, Registrant or a third party will go through the following process:
  - They will be recorded in the Register,
  - Any personal data may be transferred to governmental agencies or law enforcement bodies for purposes of security needs and defense of the Republic of Cyprus as provided under the Privacy Act, and
  - The personal data will be transferred to any third parties, only and if this is requested by Court Order.
3. The Administrator assumes liability for the integrity of the Register database and the support of this process. He or she is responsible for preserving the accuracy of the information contained in the database, based on information provided by the Applicants, Registrants and Authorized Representatives or a third party, but has no liability with respect to the intellectual property rights of the names which are used as domain names. The liability for the violation of these rights with regard to the registration is exclusively under the Registrant's authority.
4. As required by the Processing of Personal Data Law, the Administrator will follow the relevant security procedures with regard to the storage and disclosure of information provided by the Registrant, Authorized Representative or a third party, in order to prevent unauthorized access. The security process means that the Administrator may request proof of identity before proceeding to the disclosure of personal data. In addition to the aforementioned uses, the Administrator will not disclose any personal information to others, unless the Registrant explicitly authorizes the Administrator to do so.
5. Any personal data which are included in the Administrator's database may be sent to countries within and outside the European Union. The transfer will be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Processing of Personal Data Law. By registering a Domain Name, the Registrant consents to the transfer of such personal data to countries within and outside the European Union, and the processing of such personal data for these purposes are set out above, in accordance with the Privacy Act.

22. Withdrawal

The submission of inaccurate or unreliable information by the Applicant, Registrant or the failure of the immediate update of the information given to the Administrator or the failure to respond in more than fifteen (15) working days to any questions by the Administrator with regard to the accuracy of Contact details which relate to domain name registration, constitutes a serious breach of this Agreement and a basis for the cancellation of the License to Use.

23. Duration

It is agreed that the hereby Agreement will remain in full force throughout the period of the License to Use the Domain Name, for which the required fee has been paid upon submission of the application form. If there is a choice for reissuing the License to Use the Domain Name, then the term of this Agreement will be extended for an additional period for the License to Use, either for one (1) or for two (2) years, depending on the fee that has been paid.

24. Amendments of the Agreement

1. The Registrant agrees that, during the period of this Agreement, the Administrator may:
  - Revise the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and
  - Change the services provided under this Agreement.
2. Any such revision or change will be binding and effective immediately with the inclusion of the revised Agreement or change of Services in the Administrator's website or with the notification by e-mail or regular mail to the Registrant or Authorized Representative.
3. The Registrant agrees to periodically review the Administrator's website, including the Agreement, so that he or she is aware of any such revisions.
4. If the Registrant does not agree with any revisions of the Agreement then he or she may terminate this Agreement at any time by informing the Administrator by email or regular post.
5. It is provided that, with the Registrant's continuance to use the Services after the notification of any revision to this Agreement or change of the Services, he or she must comply with any such revisions or changes.
6. Furthermore, the Registrant agrees to comply with the Dispute Policy. It is provided that by maintaining the registration of the Domain Name, after the amendments of the Dispute Policy are in force, it is deemed that this person has agreed to these modifications.
7. It is acknowledged that if the Registrant does not agree to any such modifications immediate removal request of the relevant Domain Name from the Register shall be requested.

25. Administrator's exceptions and limitations of liability and Indemnity

1. The Administrator is not responsible for the Registrant, neither under this Agreement, nor by civil offence (including negligence) or otherwise for direct, indirect, incidental, special or consequential loss arising from the use or inability to use any services or cost provision of alternative services, any loss of profit, revenue or other financial loss (whether direct or indirect) and without prejudice to the generality of the aforementioned:
  - Loss or liability resulting from delays of access or disruption of access,

- Loss or liability resulting from the failure to hand over data or incorrect handing over of data,
  - Loss or liability arising from natural disasters,
  - Loss or liability arising from unauthorized use or misuse of the password of the Registrant's account,
  - Loss or liability resulting from errors, omissions or false statements of any information/service or to all information/services which are provided under this Agreement,
  - Loss or liability resulting from the interruption of service to the Registrant,
  - Loss of registration and use of the Domain Name or business interruption or any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages of any kind (including lost profits) regardless of the form of energy, either under this Agreement, whether it is a civil offense (including negligence) or otherwise, even if the Administrator has been advised of the possibility of such damages,
  - Loss of turnover,
  - Loss of anticipated savings or goodwill.
2. If the above disclaimer is considered invalid, it is agreed that the entire responsibility of the Administrator towards the Registrant, whether under this Agreement or by civil offence (including negligence) or otherwise, with respect to any services provided under this Agreement and any breach of this Agreement, shall be exclusively restricted to the amount paid for such services for the period of the License to Use.
  3. The Registrant agrees to release, indemnify and hold the Administrator, the Administrator's proxies, employees, officers, directors and affiliate companies, free from all liability, claims and expenses, including legal fees of third parties relating to or arising under this agreement, the services provided under it or the use of services by the Registrant, including, without limitation, any breach by the Registrant or a third party who uses the service to the Registrant's computer, any copyright or other proprietary right of any person or entity or violation of any of the rules or the policy of the Administrator associated with the service provided.
  4. Moreover, the Registrant agrees to indemnify the Administrator and remove all responsibility from him or her, under the terms and conditions which are included in the Dispute Policy. If the Administrator is threatened with a lawsuit by any third party, written assurances or guarantees by the Registrant may be requested with respect to the promise of paying compensation to the Administrator. The failure of the Registrant to provide safeguards or guarantees may be considered by the Administrator as a violation of the Agreement and may result in the disabling or the cancellation of the License to Use the Domain Name.

26. Breach of the Conditions and Provisions of the Order

1. It is agreed that failure of the Registrant to abide with any provision of this Agreement or with the Policy Disputes which are part of it, may be considered to be a material breach and the Administrator is allowed to provide the Registrant with a written notice, describing the breach. If, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of that notice, the Registrant fails to provide the Administrator with reasonable and satisfactory evidence that he or she has not failed to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, the Administrator can cancel the license to use. Any such violation will not be considered merely justified only because of the response or non-response of the Administrator on this or any other offense committed by the Registrant.

2. In cases where any person violates the provisions of the Order the relevant provisions of the Law and the Orders apply.

27. Adjournment

It is agreed that the terms of the agreement may be terminated. If any term or any provision is declared invalid or unenforceable, that term or provision will be considered compatible with the law in force, as much as possible, in order to reflect the original intentions of the parties. The remaining conditions and the remaining orders will be in full force.

28. The Entire Agreement

1. The Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Administrator and the Registrant and replaces any prior agreements or understandings between the Administrator and the Registrant.
2. Applications for the concession/reissuing of the License to Use the Domain Names, which are submitted to the Administrator before the effect of the Agreement and are pending, are determined by the Administrator in accordance with the provisions prior to this Agreement.
3. This Agreement shall repeal the agreement with regard to the Awarding of Internet Domain Names ending in “.cy”, the Order and the Annexes of KDP 380/05 which was in force at the date of publication of the new Order in Cyprus Official Government Gazette.

29. Non Agency

No content of the Agreement or Dispute Policy is defined as creating any agency, partnership, or other form of joint venture between the parties.

30. Notifications

Any notice, instruction or other notification which is provided under this Agreement should be in writing and sent by email, fax, normal post. In case of email or fax the sender shall receive a confirmation of delivery. Any electronic communication will be deemed valid and effective from the day of the notification, if the date is a working day and the delivery was executed before 12:00 p.m., otherwise it will be deemed that it was delivered the next working day. In case of notice by normal post, the valid notice will be deemed valid and effective five (5) working days after the posting date. Any notice to the Registrant or his/her Authorized Representative will be sent to the mailing address or the address of the Communication Contact of the Registrant and any notice to the Administrator will be sent to:
